Facts

5. I was saying to her. for a while the defendants was sneaking in and out of my home. So I, Jacqueline M. Brewington went to the police department and told the policewoman that was on duty that there are some people in my home and they will not stay out of my home and the policewoman told me to go back to my home and she will sent a policeman to the house the defendants Kris and Aubrey O. Francois was in my home so the policeman ring my bell and the defendants open my door and the policeman and I walk in the hallway of my home and the policeman ask the defendants what was they doing in my home and the defendants claims that they had brought my home and told me that the co-defendant James D. Hill gave them my piano with the house. The defendants Kris told me that I could have my piano while I was with the policeman and I told the defendant Kris that the piano live there she is the one that don't live there and I wanted them out of my home. The defendant Kris Grotelueschen was showing the policeman a bad title to my home as proof that she brought my home. I have a police report that states there are un-known people in my home.
The defendants was telling me that I did not live in my home anymore and that I better not come to my home anymore so that is when I call some lawyers and they was telling me to go to the policeman station and take my deed with my mother name on it to my home and I did.
6. The plaintiff, Jacqueline M. Brewington states that she went and hire the Constable, City of Boston a second time because the defendants, Kris Grotelueschen and Aubrey O. Francois was not taking me seriously, once the defendants, Kris and Aubrey O. Francois was serve by the constable the defendants ran downtown to the Superior Courthouse and took out an complaint on me telling the court that they owned my home with their bad title and the judge had me summon in to court when I the plaintiff, arrive to the courthouse the judge was threatening me telling me not to take the polices to my home anymore and for me not to send the constable to my home or I will get in a lot of trouble and this is what that judge told me to my face in front of the defendants, Kris and Aubrey O. Francois. The defendants, Kris and Aubrey O. Francois was trying to act like they did not know the co-defendants, Donald E. Green and Annette Hill Green but they did know the defendant, James D. Hill it was like everybody was hinding behind James D. Hill all along even the judges that was in on taking my home from me.
7. The plaintiff, Jacqueline M. Brewingto states do to the fact that the polices did not take me seriously the defendants, was able to put all types of restraining order on me just as the co-defendants, Donald E. Green and Annette Hill Green, et al. have been doing to me in the pass.
